VOL. 23 ISSUE 4

APRIL 2025

Dear Holy Trinity family,

It's no secret that our church has been growing rapidly since I began my tenure here in August of 2023. Between the strong and motivated core community, the lifting of COVID restrictions, and the nationwide influx of inquirers into the Orthodox Church, the conditions were ripe for our community to grow by the time I arrived. And the pace of this growth does not seem to have slowed: this past month alone we hit record Sunday attendance numbers twice. I'll admit that I am very excited about all of this, and it feels very gratifying to preside over a community that appears to be flourishing. But Lent is a period for sober reflection, and I believe there are two important considerations to keep in mind which should temper our excitement.

The first is that numbers don't necessarily mean anything. While it's nice to have a large and growing community, people join churches and other organizations for all sorts of reasons, be they spiritual, social, cultural, political, psychological or even financial. Just because someone is in the pews (or even before the altar) of an Orthodox Church every Sunday does not necessarily mean he is seeking union with Christ, or repenting of his sins, or sincerely struggling to love his neighbor. The state of every human heart is known to God alone, and will only be revealed at His Second Coming. On that day we may discover that some small, forgotten country chapels were glorious havens of repentance and spiritual life, while some large, crowded cathedrals housed very few true Christians. Until then, we should cling to our church whether it is full or empty, paying attention to our own spiritual development and trusting that whatever the outward circumstances, God's will is being enacted.

The second consideration is that even if people are coming to real repentance and spiritual life at our little church, it is not because of me or anyone else at the parish, but it is exclusively due to the Holy Spirit of God. God alone converts people and brings them to repentance, in accordance with Jesus Christ's pronouncement to His disciples: "You did not choose Me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit" (John 15:16); likewise St. Paul tells the Ephesians, "He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love" (Ephesians 1:4). God calls people to Himself at His time on His terms. Even very charismatic and devoted pastors can be unsuccessful (in the worldly sense) if the timing is not right according to God's plan: St. Nicholas (Kasatkin), the first Orthodox missionary to Japan, made three converts in the entire country during the first ten years of his ministry. But even during those difficult, dry years God was with him, supporting him and guiding him according to His purposes.

May God bless all of us to understand that He does not desire large, active churches the way He desires truly, deeply converted human hearts. May we all channel our excitement and energy to love and desire Him sincerely, so that we may encounter Him fully on the day of His glorious Resurrection.

God bless you all!
Fr. Theodore

Parish Council News

Lenten Greetings from the Parish Council

Dear Church Family,

As we journey through this Lenten season, I am filled with a sense of gratitude and excitement for the spirit I see in our congregation. It is truly a joy to stand in the narthex on Sunday mornings and look out into the pews. The numbers we once only saw at Easter are now part of our weekly attendance.

Lent invites us to reflect on our faith and how we can serve God and one another. One simple way to make a difference is to say hello to someone you don't know each Sunday. As we continue to grow, it's important that we not only welcome new faces but also take the time to strengthen the bonds that make us a church family.

The growth we are experiencing brings with it new needs. As much as we are grateful for your financial support, we also ask you to consider the unique talents and gifts you can offer. The church is more than just a place we visit—it's a community we build together, and everyone has something to contribute.

Our Sunday School program is a great example of this need. We're lucky to have several classrooms full of energetic kids eager to learn and grow in their faith. However, we're in need of a Sunday School Director. If you're passionate about kids and want to help guide them on their spiritual journey, we'd love to chat with you. Your leadership could make a real difference.

Your presence, your prayers, and your contributions—whether through time, talent, or treasure—are what make our church a place of renewal. Together, let us continue to grow in faith and fellowship as we prepare for the joy of the Resurrection.

In Christ's love,
Matthew Mandros
Parish Council President

We enter our spiritual home not to be entertained, but to be a part of a community of believers. We receive Jesus Christ in Holy Communion. As we pray, worship and serve together, we become His Body. To be truly a member of the Church as Body of Christ requires our presence and our engagement with one another -- in worship, study and service to others. We grow spiritually as a family.
