

THE HOLY TRINITY HERALD

THE MONTHLY NEWSLETTER OF HOLY TRINITY GREEK ORTHODOX CHURCH ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

VOL. 24 ISSUE 2

FEBRUARY 2026

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

On February 8th in the Orthodox Church, we commemorate St. Theodore Stratelates, my patron. St. Theodore was a commander (Stratelates) in the Roman military and a secret Christian, who was distinguished for his bravery and generosity. He was beheaded by the Emperor Licinius in the year 319, because he refused to worship the Emperor's gold and silver idols, and instead smashed them and distributed their pieces to the poor.

The Roman authorities did not persecute Christians because of who they worshipped. Why would Caesar care if some of his people prayed to Jesus? Plenty of Roman subjects worshipped Ra, Ba'al, and a host of other foreign gods and goddesses. As long as they would also offer a sacrifice before a statue of Jupiter from time to time, there were no problems. The Romans persecuted Christians because of who they didn't worship: from the very beginning, Christians steadfastly refused to pray to or worship idols of the Roman gods and goddesses, especially of the Emperor. Many Roman Emperors, governors, and officials took great pleasure in punishing Christians for their nonconformity, subjecting them to vicious tortures and humiliating deaths. Martyrs are those saints who remained strong in their faith and refused to submit despite the terrible violence inflicted on them. Their courage and integrity in the face of danger and deep suffering distinguish them as examples of true Christian faith and virtue.

Stories of the martyrs who refused to bow before idols can inspire and fascinate us, but to many Christians living today they may seem archaic or irrelevant. Almost no modern Christians face pressure to sacrifice to idols or statues or false deities of any kind. Is idolatry, then, a relic of the distant past? Do the struggles of the martyrs bear any relation to the lives of Christians living in the 21st century?

I would venture to say that idol worship is as widespread in our current era as it was two thousand years ago. Christians rejected idolatry not only because it involved praying to false gods (although that was part of it), but because it involved believing something created by humans had the power of the Creator. No statue could hear our prayers, protect us, guide us, heal us, or give us eternal life, because it is an object. It is absurd to put one's trust in something that cannot do any of the things we want it to do. But very many people even today do exactly that.

If we understand that an idol is any thing that we wrongly elevate to the status of God, we see that there are many idols that are still worshipped in the modern era: money, health, beauty, prestige, entertainment, sex, and (especially) the self. Likewise, even though no one still offers sacrifices to the Emperor of Rome, many of us still worship mere human beings, in the form of political leaders, celebrities, thinkers, and other famous or noteworthy people. Some people also make idols out of their own parents, spouses, or children. Anything that we attribute supreme importance to can act as an idol.

The problem with the modern-day idols is the same problem with ancient idols: they are not God, even though we treat them like Him. No object or human being could fulfill us, or stop us from dying. They are temporary, limited, and fallible, unlike God who is Eternal, Infinite, and Perfect. They can be good things, but if we put them at the center of our lives, if we live our lives in service to them, then we will inevitably be disappointed. Worse still, we will also have missed the opportunity to know the True God, because everything we put in the place of God is a barrier between us and Him. May St. Theodore and all the holy martyrs from every age bless us with the strength to smash the idols in our lives, so that we may worship the true Creator, who is Spirit (cf. John 4:24).

God bless you all!

Religious Education

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Our students are preparing their presentations for the St. John Chrysostom Oratorical Festival. The elementary students will present on child saints. And the middle and high school students will choose and work on their topics this month.

Please contact Father Theodore, Diane Simmons, or Fred Gianakouros if you are able to volunteer to be a helper or a teacher. We also still need a Director.

Greek School

The Greek School, in coordination with the Sunday School of Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church in Roanoke, hosted the Celebration of the Three Hierarchs. A short presentation was given following the Divine Liturgy on Sunday, February 1, 2026.

Feast of the Three Hierarchs

Saints Basil the Great, Gregory the Theologian, and John Chrysostom

 Sunday, February 1st

 Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church

 After the Divine Liturgy

The Feast of the Three Hierarchs was established in the 11th century to honor three great teachers of the Orthodox Church.

United in faith, wisdom, education, charity, and love for the people, their writings continue to express the unity and conscience of the Church.

Parish Council News

Dear Holy Trinity Family and Friends,

As we settle into the new year and the short, quiet days of February, we give thanks to our Lord for His steadfast love and for the many ways He has sustained and blessed our parish family.

Here is a brief update on the projects authorized by the general assembly in November:

- ☉ Exterior Lighting: The fixtures have been ordered and received, and an electrical contractor has been selected. Unfortunately, recent inclement weather has delayed the start of installation. Work is expected to begin as soon as weather conditions allow.
- ☉ Camera System: Quotations were received in January, but installation has likewise been postponed due to the same weather-related delays. We anticipate moving forward with installation as conditions improve.
- ☉ Doors and Locks: We are still reviewing and entertaining quotations for installing electronic locks on three of the main doors. In addition, we are continuing to work with contractors on options to replace the locking mechanism on the main sanctuary doors, which can no longer be repaired. As part of this effort, all doors will be re-keyed to ensure consistency and improved security.

While weather has slowed some aspects of the work, we remain dedicated to seeing these enhancements through and will share further updates as progress resumes. Looking forward, please note that our next General Assembly is scheduled for March 15th. Keep an eye out for the agenda, which will be shared soon so that all members can prepare.

In these unusually cold days, let us take care to stay warm and look out for one another.

In Christ,
Matthew Mandros
Parish Council President

FEBRUARY NEWSLETTER

OPA with Love Greek Valentine Dinner

Thank you to everyone who has purchased tickets, sponsored items to defray cost and volunteered to help before during and after the event. If you haven't officially let me know that you'd like to help, please attend the volunteer meeting. A brief volunteer meeting will be held on Sunday February 8th after the Soup-er Bowl to show the set-up schedule and to assign specific responsibilities.

What Souper-Bowl you say? February 8th, Super Bowl Sunday, you'll enjoy specialty soups, chowders and chili along with submarine sandwiches all for a donation to send our kids to Camp Good Shepherd! Special thanks to Coach Irene Karageorge for putting this event together for our children!

The February Philoptochos meeting cancelled due to the snowstorm will be rescheduled after OPA with Love. In the meantime, if you have questions, concerns or would like more info about joining Philoptochos, give me a call.

If you haven't paid your Philoptochos dues, please do so as soon as possible. Dues were expected before January 31st.

Pray for Peace,
Danna

The Roanoke Greek Festival is proud to share the nonprofit organizations that received donations from the 2025 Big Fat Greek Drive-Thru and the Greek Street Pastry & Market. Through these events, we were honored to support local organizations that make a meaningful difference in the lives of individuals throughout the Roanoke community.

We are pleased to announce that the Bradley Free Clinic, Family Service of Roanoke Valley, and Roanoke Valley Speech and Hearing Center, Inc. each received a donation of $2,700. We are grateful for the opportunity to help these organizations continue their important work.

A big thank you to everyone in our parish who generously shared their time and talents to make both events such a success. Your dedication and support make this outreach possible, and we look forward to continuing this tradition of giving in the year ahead.

As always, if you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me at (434) 851-6835 or via email at info@roanokegreekfestival.com.
